The New Candidates

The political pot in Chesterfield is getting warmer rapidly and from all appearances, will soon be at the boiling point.

There were four new candidates to announce last week. Mr. F. W. Rivers entered the race for Supervisor. He is well and favorably known to a great many. Besides being a successful farmer and generally useful citizen, he has acceptably served as township commissioner for Courthouse Township. Mr. Rivers will no doubt give a good account of himself.

Mr. J. C. Huntley, Jr., of Ruby, who has been depot agent at that place since 1904 is in the race for treasurer. Mr. Huntley offers the qualifications of a good accountant added to industry. It is said that some Ruby citizens are threatening to vote to keep him at Ruby as they cannot afford to spare so good a depot agent.

Magistrate S. B. Rogers again announces for Magistrate of Alligator Township. Mr. Rogers is running on his record of past performances in this office and may predict his re-election.

Mr. H. A. Watson went after the job of Cotton Weigher as though he meant to land it this time. Mr. Watson needs no introduction. He made a close race for this position two years ago and if he gets a little closer this time the job is his.

Mr. J. A. Welsh this week settles all rumors as to whether he will or will not run for the office of Treasurer. Mr. Welsh can point to his record as a successful business man in town as qualifications that would make good as Treasurer.

Mr. H. W. Crosswell of Pageland, this week makes his bow to the public and announces for Supervisor. Mr. Crosswell is an energetic and enterprising type of man that makes good anywhere. He is a man to be reckoned with in this campaign. There were others too late for mention at this time.

Bids Open for School Building

Notice is hereby given that bids will be received for the erection of a two-story frame school building at the town of Angelus on May 27th. Bids will be considered either for material or work. The plans may be seen either at the office of the County Superintendent of Education or at Mr. R. A. Knight's at Angelus.

R. A. Rouse,
County Supt. of Ed.

Notice—Election of School Trustees

Notice is hereby given that all districts wishing to elect trustees to serve from July 1, 1916 to June 30, 1918, should present petitions in accordance with section 1818 Civil Code of 1912, on or before June 1, 1916.

R. A. Rouse,
Co. Supt. of Ed.

Look at Your Table Expenses

After you have used our meats a while

It will surprise you to find your expenses considerably less than formerly. Yet you have enjoyed finer meats than ever before. The reason is simple. Our meats are so good that every ounce of them is eaten. There is therefore no waste and the stoppage of waste is saving. Also reduction in price is saving.

Junior Order Exercises At The Courthouse

The Junior Order United American Mechanics, which has been giving picnics over the county, and in other ways making its presence known, has a better treat than ever in store for the good people of Chesterfield County.

On next Thursday, May 12, at 8:30 p. m., at the Courthouse this order will offer exercises "Presenting the Principles of the Junior Order United American Mechanics." A most excellent entertainment is in store for those who attend. Not only are good speeches provided, but there will be plenty of music arranged by the Misses Gaddy and Brock.

The program is as follows:

Master of ceremonies, Rev. F. M. Cannon.

Instrumental music.

Song.

Address, "Virtue"—Rev. Paul T. Wood.

Address, "Liberty"—Rev. J. L. Tyler.

Address, "Patriotism"—Hon. J. C. Massey, Kershaw, S. C.

Song.

Address, "The Good of the Order"—P. A. Murray, Jr.

Instrumental music.

Organization of the ladies' auxiliary order, "Daughters of America."

Song.

This council is one of the strongest in the State and has gained in numbers during the past four months 100 per cent.

There Will Be A Clean-Up, Sure!

The mayor of Chesterfield has announced that action will be prompt and sure on the matter of cleaning up in the rear of the business houses.

Merchants will be given until Saturday night to put their back lots in sanitary condition.

In case orders are not complied with by that time, the town will take over the work and the bill met by those whose property is thus cleaned.

But that is not all. Those who have ignored the orders of the Board of Health and of the council will be liable to trial and fine.

Co-Operative Clubs.

An excellent beginning has been made in the organization of co-operative clubs among Chesterfield farmers.

Live clubs are now organized at Dudley, with Mr. Turner Funderburk as president, and at Pine Grove, with Mr. J. H. White President.

It is intended to conduct agricultural night schools for farmers, where possible and to purchase such machinery for co-operative use as spray pumps etc.

This is a fine and thoroughly practical endeavor and should be thoroughly successful.

Mrs. Elias Crawley

Mrs. Elias Crawley, wife of Mr. Elias Crawley, of near Patrick, died on Wednesday, May third.

She died a faithful and consecrate Christian. Besides a husband and five children she leaves two brothers to mourn her death.

We are in the ICE business to stay, and can supply your wants however large or small. We have reduced the price formerly charged for ice in this place by 20 cents per block. Competition is the life of business. Telephone us your wants and prompt delivery will be made. Our ice bowls will be here in a few days.

Geese and Hens Wanted.

500 hens, 100 geese wanted. Highest market prices paid.

J. W. Hanna.

Chesterfield Honors Her Heroic Dead

According to a time-honored and beautiful custom, Chesterfield turned aside from her business occupations yesterday to do honor to the memory of those brave and gallant soldiers who have answered the last roll call and are sleeping in the Chesterfield cemetery.

The school children bearing flowers, formed ranks at the courthouse and together with the few remaining veterans and citizens marched to the cemetery.

Capt. H. D. Tiller was master of ceremonies.

At the cemetery the exercises were simple but impressive. Rev. J. L. Tyler led in prayer. There was music by a select choir and an excellent address by Mr. P. A. Murray, Jr. Mr. Murray spoke of the Old South and the New, paying a fine tribute to those of the old south who fought for a principle.

There were only five veterans in line, Capt. D. H. Tiller, Messrs. W. D. and T. P. Craig, and W. H. Melton and T. T. Burch.

As has been the custom, there were flowers for the two Federal graves as well as the twenty Confederate.

A Pear Blight Cure

About one year ago The Advertiser's representative found the farm of Mr. A. A. Douglass, on the Old Scotch Road, an interesting place to visit. At that time Mr. Douglass told an interesting story of a snake that swallowed alcohol, bottle and all. He showed us some live guinea-chickens (a hybrid) and a number of useful inventions. This time there was no story to relate and the guinea-chickens had grown up and were sold.

Mr. Douglass' wizardry had taken a new turn, and he showed us some pear trees that had been cured of pear blight. The trees showed every evidence of having suffered from some disease, but the bark and wood are now in a healthy condition. A reliable witness was not wanting who said that the trees were suffering badly last year, but were now apparently sound.

This preparation was applied last year to a single row of peas in a field that was affected by wilt, with the result that the one row produced thoroughly healthy vines, while other parts of the field continued to suffer.

Mr. Douglass believes his discovery will prove an effective remedy for cotton wilt, tomato rot and other kindred vegetable ailments, as it has also arrested cabbage rot.

More thorough tests will no doubt be given this preparation this summer.

Two Fugitives Caught

Lester Keenan and Earl Blanchard two fugitives from justice in Mecklenburg county, N. C., were captured by Chesterfield county authorities Monday.

They had escaped from the charginang about one week ago. About two months ago these two boys, in company with a Davis boy, known in Chesterfield, were charged with unlawfully entering a box car in Mecklenburg county. The Davis boy was sent to the reformatory while Keenan and Blanchard were sent to the gang for six months. Their claim is that they only entered the car for protection from cold.

Word had been received at the sheriff's office to look out for them and when two strangers came strolling through town corresponding to their descriptions Mr. Grant, rural policeman, took up the trail and soon had both boys in custody.

Jim Teal's Family Destitute in Columbia

The family of Mr. Jim Teal, whose condition had been called to the attention of the county authorities, left the county last week for Columbia. Mr. Teal had been released from the State Sanitarium and thought himself able to support his family in Columbia. The city authorities have taken the family in custody pending action by the State Board of Charities.

The following letter has just been received:

Rev. J. L. Tyler,
Chesterfield, S. C.

Dear Mr. Tyler: The associated Charities has asked us to assist them in placing the seven children of Mr. Teal of Chesterfield, S. C. Mr. Teal was dismissed from the State Hospital for the Insane a few days ago. His type of mental trouble, the director of the medical staff at the State Hospital tells me, is such that it may be some months and even years before he will have to be re-committed. He has been a patient at the State Hospital on three separate occasions, as his trouble has recurred at intervals after he was dismissed. The medical director tells me that if he can be relieved of the burden of caring for his seven children it may have a tendency to prolong the period during which he will be sane.

You wrote Miss Blackburn of the Associated Charities that you had been authorized by the Chesterfield board of county commissioners to place these children in an orphanage. Have you any special orphanage in mind? It will cost the county $5.00 a month to keep each child in the the Rescue Orphanage at Columbia. There are seven of these children, you know. Can you tell me how much money the board of commissioners of your county is willing to pay for their support?

Please do not let the idea get out that Mr. Teal has been paroled from the State Hospital for the Insane while he was insane. This is not the case, but as I said before his mental trouble is liable to recur at any time. Taking these children and putting them where he will not be burdened with their support will have a tendency to prolong the period between the attacks of his mental trouble.

I hope we may be able to make some satisfactory arrangement about these children. Have they any relatives at all in Chesterfield county who could assist in taking care of them?

With kindest regards, I am,

Yours truly,
Albert D. Oliphant,
Assistant Secretary.

It will no doubt appear to everyone that this is still a Chesterfield county case and that Chesterfield county should act.

It has been suggested that the county enter five of the children in the Columbia home and maintain them there for a few months until satisfactory homes can be found for them.

The Texas State Pure Food and Drug Department, having made independent experiments which proved beyond doubt that flies carry disease germs, has begun an active campaign for the screening of all food-stuffs in the state. Inspectors have been sent out with strict orders to compel all storekeepers, hucksters and others who offer anything edible for sale to keep it covered in such a manner that flies cannot get to it. In most of the cities the women's clubs are giving active aid to the inspectors and promising to withdraw their trade from merchants who persist in violating this law.
